Dear Mr. Maslow:

Thank you for the material you sent me on January 20 regarding the recent series of anti-Semitic incidents. You are correct in stating that I have been deeply concerned by these events. Anyone who remembers the past cannot help but be concerned by even the slightest evidence that this sickness is still with us.

Sincerely,

My dear Mr. Dulles:

I know that you have been deeply concerned by the wave of anti-Semitic defacements all over the United States and in other parts of the world. I have, therefore, taken the liberty of sending you a chart we have recently prepared listing these incidents.

The World Jewish Congress itself, with which we are affiliated and which has branches in 65 countries, is attempting through its London Office a more comprehensive survey.

Sincerely,

Will Maslow

CHART OF RECENT WORLD-WIDE ANTI-SEMITIC DEFACEMENTS

1. The following chart, based primarily on United States press reports, is necessarily incomplete. The Federal Minister of the Interior of West Germany has reported that about 200 anti-Semitic and anti-Catholic incidents have occurred in the last three weeks.
2. Any defacement of a synagogue, Jewish communal property or a building or home owned by a Jew and any daubing of a swastika or anti-Jewish slogan is considered anti-Semitic for the purposes of this chart.
3. Excluded from the chart are acts of vandalism, defamation or intimidation, if not accompanied by a defacement of a building.
4. The chart shows anti-Semitic daubings in 25 countries located in all six continents. Incidents took place in 124 cities.
5. In the United States alone, there were 71 incidents in 46 cities located in 18 states and the list is incomplete. According to the New York City Commission on Intergroup Relations, there were 26 incidents about which it has reports in New York City.
6. There was at least one incident in West Germany each day from December 25 through January 13, 1960.
7. Arrests were made or convictions obtained in Cologne, Nuremberg, West Berlin, Offenbach, Marienborn, Bonn and Frankfurt, West Germany. A group of eight men was arrested in Milan. In the United States, many young boys were arrested, two of whom were adjudged delinquent in New York City.
8. Local neo-Nazi gangs were blamed for daubings by police in Milan, Sao Paulo, Johannesburg, Baltimore, Jacksonville and Mamaroneck, New York. The two men arrested in Cologne were members of the Reichs Partei, an extreme rightist political party.

9. All of the persons arrested in the U.S.A. were under 18; all those arrested in Germany were from 20 to 25, except for the "youngsters" (age not given) arrested in Marienborn.
10. The incidents took place in waves. From December 25 to December 30, they were limited to Germany. From December 31 through January 5, they were reported in England, Belgium, Austria, Norway, France, Sweden, Greece, Italy and Finland. On January 6, they broke out in East Germany. The first incidents in Latin America began the same day. The Australian incidents began January 5th. The incidents in the United States began in New York on January 2; thereafter, the chart shows incidents in five cities on January 6, six on January 7, four on January 8, sixteen on January 9, eight on January 10, eight on January 11 and nine on January 12.
11. On January 8 the incidents spread to college campuses and thereafter there were daubings on six campuses.
12. Inscriptions in German were reported in only one U.S.A. incident on Staten Island but four "Heil Hitlers" were painted elsewhere.
13. Roman Catholic and Protestant churches of various denominations were also daubed with swastikas in Germany, Brazil, Austria, England and the United States.
14. In several cities, many buildings were daubed in one night in an identical manner, e.g., Dinslaken, West Germany, Hamburg, Vienna, Linz and Oberndorf, Austria; Paris, London, Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Columbus, Mo.; and Santa Fe.
15. Three youths, 21, 20 and 16 years old, were arrested in Queens, New York City on January 14. In the home of the leader, John Wallace, were found swastika armbands, blank membership cards and anti-Semitic notes. Their organization was called the "National American Socialist Renaissance Party." They denied any connection with recent swastika painting.
